A MESSAGE FROM REV. JENNI

Good Friday to you!

By the time you are reading this, I think our youth visitors from the Quebec City area will be on their way to Ottawa for Worshiplude weekend.

(WORSHIP + WINTERLUDE = WORSHIPLUDE)

THANKS SO MUCH to all those who have made food donations for our guests - you have been so generous! They will be so grateful!

All youth are invited to Rideau Park at 4pm on Saturday for youth programming. I will be there as a chaplain if you want to be in touch/ask questions.

With the turn of the new month and the continuing promise of more daylight as we get closer to springtime, I hope that you will continue to focus on the light. We are still in the season of Epiphany and so looking for the light is a very good thing to do! Some good news always helps, right? Well, just this week, I've heard of someone's surgery going really well, someone getting a really good job (with benefits!) and someone else starting a new relationship! Denise shared last Sunday that the mask fundraiser for Ophelia had raised $1000 (which gets her closer to life-altering treatment)! All of this is wonderful news!

Maybe you have your own good news? I'd love to hear it!

May you stay warm this weekend and enjoy the sunshine!

Blessings, all,
Jenni

p.s. As we have entered February, we will focus on our Alphabet word: Justice and Black History Month. Also, a reminder that next Sunday, February 12th is Holy Humour Sunday.
