SPECIAL OUTREACH

CLOTHING DONATIONS ARE NEEDED –

"Special Const. Susanne Kelly has offered winter clothing to those released from custody at the Ottawa Courthouse on Elgin Street for more than 20 years. She even collects clothing from the judges and lawyers who work there - but she says supplies have dwindled to "crisis level". People arrested in summer or at night - who may or may not be convicted of offences - often aren't prepared to be released into cold weather - and on some days we know that Ottawa can be the coldest capital in the world.

Constable Kelly says the need is the greatest for the following items: men's winter coats and winter boots - in any size.

If you would like to donate any of these items, you can drop them off at the church the next TWO SUNDAYS. Sian Griffiths will gather up the items after the service and will deliver them to the courthouse. If it's more convenient, you can make arrangements with Sian Griffith at 613 413 5687 to drop these items off at her home by Sunday night."
