Greetings from the Annual meeting of the Regional Council, meeting at Trinity! (It's a busy weekend for me with this meeting both today and tomorrow and a wedding tomorrow as well - Sylvia Smith's daughter, Evana is getting married!)

I'm really looking forward to Sunday where we can celebrate being Affirming for a year, celebrate Pride Sunday, and then at coffee time, thank Kirsten for her nearly 16 years of faithful, cheerful service!

At 2pm, we will move to the sanctuary for the documentary 1946: the mistranslation that shifted culture. You can buy tickets online or at the door with cash (only!) - $10

On June 9th we will celebrate the Church's 99th Anniversary looking forward to our 100th year as a church of Canada! Did you know it was an act of Parliament that formed the United Church of Canada? More to come on June 9th!

June 16th is Indigenous Sunday, and we will be having an Oji-Cree youth speak about projects they are working on. There will also be an opportunity to smudge (a traditional healing act) and hear drumming with Raven and Daniel.

June 21st - Kitchissippi golf and lunch day! If you can make it for lunch, please join us!

June 23rd is our congregational picnic at Kitchissippi. We hope to be outside (last year we were forced to be inside because of the smoke), and we'll have a picnic lunch after the service as well. More information to come!

June 30th - last service before August (as Council made the decision to close for the month of July). I hope you enjoy your weekend and get to spend time outside!

Blessings,
Jenni
